First things first

New Baby

Saturday, February 10th at 21:12 (9:12pm) we welcomed baby Levi Emanuel Abel. He was born weighing 3.45 Kg (7 lb 9.7oz) and measuring 52 cm (20.4 Inches). There was no drama. When we arrived at the hospital labor was well underway and within an hour we were holding our precious baby.

How are we doing?

Great! Zoey, Ian and Boaz love the little guy. They were competing to see who would get to hold the baby first.

On other news, Zoey and Ian both began attending school. They have been to four days of classes and are still excited!

The are attending half-days at the christian school where I taught when we first moved to Villarrica. Pray that the relationships we can form with students and parents will open doors for the gospel.

Baby shower just in time!

We have felt the love of God demonstrated through others. Some friends planned a baby shower, missionary friends brought us meals, others volunteered to help watch the kids while we were at the hospital. We have had many visitors come to meet the baby and wish us well.

Journey Missions Visitors

Last night we were happy to welcome these visitors from the USA. They will spend one week with us getting to know our mission field and helping out with some projects.
