Recommendation Form

Dear Pastor,

"But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." ~ Acts 1:8

We are excited to see the increasing nationwide interest for missions. The person that handed you this form is prayerfully pursuing a short-term missions trip.

While this need not take more than five minutes of your time, please give your frank, thoughtful, and prayerful recommendation about this persons involvement in a trip. This contact is a primary means for our team to evaluate the spiritual condition of the applicant. We are eager to see people who are trusting in Jesus and stretching to serve Him involved in this opportunity.

Please fill out this form and return it within 10 days to your short-term missions Trip Leader or (AFLC Headquarters Attn: Journey Missions). When returning to the Team Leader, place form in envelope, seal and sign your name over the envelope seal. This will ensure confidentiality. Thank you!

The trip leader will be gathering Individual Applications and Recommendations to submit to Journey Missions.

Thank you for your time!

In Christ,

Jon Nelson
Department Head of AFLC Journey Missions

Short Term Trip Code of Conduct

Short-Term ministry trips are about representing Jesus Christ and AFLC Journey Missions to people who may not know Jesus. Thus, as a participant of AFLC Journey Missions short-term ministry trip, it is expected that you conduct yourself according to the highest standards of integrity and morality, so as not to compromise the team, the ministry partners or the image of Christ. In summary, we ask that you refrain from any behavior that may hinder your ministry or the ministry of the team for the duration of the trip; and we ask that you follow these guidelines, recognizing that, should you conduct yourself otherwise, you, the team and the ministry are put at risk. By reading and signing this Code of Conduct you are agreeing to abide by AFLC Journey Missions guidelines for the duration of your trip. Failure to follow these guidelines will result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the mission field, in which case you will travel home at your own expense.

I will:

1. Make my best effort to attend all team meetings prior to departure, during the trip and post-trip. (If unable to attend, arrangements must be made with team leaders to cover the material presented.)
2. Go as a servant of Jesus Christ and adopt that attitude when dealing with fellow team members, missionaries, and other people I meet during the trip.
3. Be flexible in attitude, recognizing that schedules and activities may change.
4. Interact with all team members, not just those I knew prior to the trip.
5. Accept and submit to the leadership and authority of the team leader(s) and/or country host(s) and promise to abide by his or her decisions as they concern this ministry trip.
6. Respect advice given by the country host(s) regarding attire, eating and drinking, personal interactions, and traditions that will help me better understand and assimilate into the local culture.
7. Follow the guidelines provided by my team leader(s) and/or country host(s) regarding gift giving.
8. Be circumspect regarding what could be perceived as flaunting our wealth. It is not uncommon that the jewelry, cameras, electronics etc. we take with us on a trip cost more than those we visit may earn in years.
9. Be respectful in regard to photography. We all want to remember our trips with photos. Yet we must respect the dignity of our hosts. This is especially true of video recording.
10. Ensure that the team leader(s) knows where I am at all times. I will not wander off or follow my own agenda regarding the use of my time during the trip.
11. Refrain from using illegal drugs at any time while on the ministry trip.
12. Refrain from inappropriate public displays of affection with team members and one-on-one social activities with nationals of the opposite sex.

I have read and understand and agree to the above guidelines for conduct while on my short-term ministry trip. I recognize and agree that in the event that my conduct is considered so unsatisfactory that it jeopardizes the success of the trip, and that mediation during the trip has failed to correct my behavior, that my services with the ministry shall end, and I shall return home immediately at my own expense.

I agree with the above expectations and certify that the information in this application is true to the best of my knowledge.
